

Low dam level, high concern

Frequent rain and a raw water contingency project have slightly increased the capacity of the Teluk Bahang dam but Penang is still not out of danger and authorities are hoping that vital cloud seeding operations can start soon. >3

Picking up vital skill

Hiker Yim Tee Lau (centre) learning to perform CPR during a training programme at the Bukit Jambul hiking trail in Penang. Participants are also taught how to use an AED properly. — ZHAFARAN NASIB/The Star >3
